

Elect Derek Drover for NLTA President

My Commitment to You:

- To protect and defend members' rights
- To protect and grow our collective agreement
- To seek improvements to members' work-life balance
- To ensure fair and transparent hiring practices
- To seek reasonable workload, class size and composition
- To advocate for safe and healthy work environments
- To seek improved systemic resourcing
- To ensure teacher self-care/wellness is a priority
- To pursue remuneration and compensation improvements
- To pursue an independent review of the teacher allocation model
- To be accountable to you:
  - To initiate a Presidential performance appraisal process for non-election years
  - To enhance accountability and transparency for Presidential travel
  - To amplify engagement with Branches and Special Interest Councils
  - To implement membership-focused NLTA leadership growth initiatives
  - To seek feedback on NLTA services
  - To be a voice for all teachers
  - To listen to you!
